COMPUMED ANNOUNCES BOARD CHANGES

LOS ANGELES, CA (October 30, 2014) - CompuMed, Inc. (OTCPink: CMPD), the leaders in providing enterprise telemedicine solutions, announced today that Board Members Mark Stolper and Maurizio Vecchione have resigned. Mr. Stolper and Mr. Vecchione served on the CompuMed Board for seven and two years respectively. David Pointer, an existing CompuMed Director, will replace Mark Stolper as Chairman. Additionally, Lee Keddie and Jeremy Weiner have been appointed to CompuMed's Board.

"We would like to thank Mr. Stolper and Mr. Vecchione for their service to the CompuMed Board of Directors. We are excited to welcome Mr. Keddie and Mr. Weiner to our Board. We believe we have terrific skills in place to guide CompuMed to its next phase of growth" said David Pointer, CompuMed's Chairman.

About Lee Keddie

Lee Keddie brings engineering and executive experience to CompuMed, including expertise in developing scalable systems. He was the President and General Manager of HKX Inc., where company revenues increased by eight times over his fourteen-year tenure. HKX provided hydraulic system kits within the construction equipment market and was sold to Diploma PLC. Mr. Keddie also spent eight years working as an Aerospace Engineer for a number of companies within the aeronautical field, including McDonnell Douglas and Boeing. He received a degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Waterloo.

About David Pointer

David Pointer has been a board member since December of 2013. Mr. Pointer is the Managing Partner and Founder of VI Capital Management, LLC, a value investment fund. He also served as SVP at ICM Asset Management and as a Portfolio Manager with AIM Investments. Mr. Pointer is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA), graduated from Central Washington University and received his MBA from The Wharton School of Business.

About Jeremy Weiner

Jeremy Weiner applies his entrepreneurial skill and passion towards building companies and working closely with fellow entrepreneurs to create and build their companies. Mr. Weiner is the Founder and Chairman of Zim Squared, a youth marketing company specializing in implementing in-school marketing solutions. He also serves as an adviser to StartEngine. Mr. Weiner founded Cover-It, which he subsequently sold to Primedia. Mr. Weiner also was the Founder of Media X, which was sold to News Corporation. He graduated from Babson College.
